Honoring Yom HaShoa — Artists Respond to the Holocaust April 28-29

The two-day event will feature a discussion with documentary filmmaker Pierre Sauvage, who is a child survivor of the Holocaust and president of the Chambon Foundation, and a showing of his documentary “Weapons of Spirit” at 7 p.m., Monday, April 28, in the Kiva. The film tells the story of a mountain community in France that defied the Nazis and saved 5,000 Jews, including Sauvage and his parents. In addition, a performance by the Manchester Dance Ensemble, a group of ballet dancers between the ages of 11 and 18, will take place at 8 p.m., Tuesday, April 29, in the Kiva.

Both events are free and open to the public. For more information, call 330-672-8924.
