

“NIGHT OF BROKEN GLASS”

Join the Jewish Studies Program, the KSU History Club, and Kent Hillel as we jointly commemorate a date of infamy when the Jews of Germany were subjected to the full violence and racist terror of the Nazis.

MONDAY, NOV 9, 2009

ALL THE DAY'S EVENTS
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

In the afternoon, tables will be set up in the HUB to raise awareness about racism and the danger of genocide in today's world.

Then join us at

7:30 PM—KENT CAMPUS, KIVA

HARRY KOPPEL
GEORGE KRONNENBERG

Two survivors of the Night of Broken Glass, Cleveland residents Harry Koppel and George Kronnenberg, will speak of their personal stories of endurance and survival of that event.

For additional information about the program, contact the Jewish Studies Program at 330-672-8924 or rsteigma@kent.edu