

PHI BETA DELTA
Honor Society for International Scholars

Beta Zeta Chapter
Kent State University

Membership Application

The purpose of Phi Beta Delta is to recognize and encourage professional, intellectual and creative achievement in international education and to promote interdisciplinary contacts and exchange of knowledge.

The members of Phi Beta Delta represent international and U.S. students, faculty and staff, selected on the basis of their international orientation, scholarly accomplishments and/or contributions to international exchange. Both international and U.S. faculty and students are eligible for membership in Phi Beta Delta. Scholarly accomplishments, study abroad, experience in a university-approved exchange program, and/or active involvement in international organizations and activities on campus are qualifying activities and experience.

Applications should be received by March 15 and members will be selected and notified by the end of March. Those selected for membership will be inducted during the annual awards ceremony in April. You are more than welcome to apply after this date also.

Application Instructions

Please fill out the application form as completely as possible. The Membership Committee reviews each application and decides induction candidacy based upon experience, written responses, and, in the case of students, grade point average and involvement.
